Job: Professionals

INTRODUCTION

Different characteristics are important for success in different jobs, and characteristics that are important in one job may interfere with performance in others. The Hogan Personality Inventory (HPI) evaluates candidates on seven well-known dimensions or characteristics that influence occupational success. This report is based on the candidate's scores on these dimensions and it is organized in three sections. Section I reviews the candidate's results focusing on (a) characteristics relevant for success in most work environments; (b) suitability for the position; and (c) the style with which she will interview. Section II provides a graphic report of the candidate's assessment results. Section III summarizes the recommendation for job fit and potential hiring.
